

Uber Eats Gift Card — Terms & Conditions

- Registering for this event does not guarantee receipt of an Uber Eats gift card. Gift cards are distributed at SellCord's sole discretion and are not guaranteed to all registrants or attendees.
- SellCord reserves the right to decline issuing a gift card to any registrant or attendee for any reason without prior notice.
- Gift cards are issued exclusively to attendees selected by SellCord. Selection is not automatic and is based on criteria determined internally.
- The gift card is only valid if the recipient attends and participates in the live session in full. Non-attendance or early departure may result in forfeiture.
- Gift cards must be used on the day of the session. Any remaining balance after that date is not guaranteed to remain available and SellCord is not responsible for unused or expired balances.
- SellCord reserves the right to limit the amount available on the gift card at any time.
- Gift cards have no cash value and cannot be exchanged, refunded, or transferred.
- Gift cards are valid for use on the Uber Eats platform only and are subject to Uber Eats' own terms and conditions.
- SellCord is not responsible for undelivered gift cards due to incorrect or missing email addresses provided by the registrant.
- SellCord reserves the right to modify, limit, or discontinue the gift card offer at any time without prior notice.
